PREFACE

THE formation of this hymnal has been guided by experience derived from actual work (1) in Mission preaching, (2) in permanent Parish Missions ; and by careful study of existing Mission Hymnals.

Certain fine manuals, for the most part published twenty-five and thirty years ago, such as the London, Lichfield, and Durham Mission Hymnals, consist of hymns not dissimilar to those here presented ; but they are of local use, and their contents of limited range. Other compilations are of wider distribution and of large popularity, but are less satisfactory as consisting of hymns almost entirely of one type, and that a type which is not native to our country and, further, which is too markedly divergent from the class of hymn sung in our churches. It has been found that the use of such compilations created a barrier between the Mission Services and those of the Church ; and that people taught to care for that sole class of hymn and tune, lose their natural affection for the Church's praise, even for its psalms, and can with difficulty be led on through the Mission to the Church.

It has been felt, too, that collections of hymns which are exclusively of the subjective class and are occupied with self and the experiences of self, fail to equip the Missioner fully ; and that objective hymns, of which the theme is the love, the gracious work, and the glory of God, are more powerful with many souls—perhaps with all at a certain stage of their advance into light—to commend the Gospel of God and to uplift the soul in His praise.

Considerations such as these have influenced the compilers in putting into this hymnbook a considerable number of hymns not, perhaps, ordinarily classed as evangelistic, which yet truly are so. Then the fact that their aim is to provide the Missioner with a complete manual for all the parts of Mission work, including daily prayers with the Mission workers, is responsible for the hymns of certain sections. And because it is convenient in such work, whether occasional or permanent, to have a single manual in the hands of those attending the services, therefore some metrical psalms, some paraphrases, and a considerable number of hymns which are already in our books of praise, are given a place in this Mission hymnal.¹

Both in the selection and in the arrangement of these hymns the compilers have kept in view the two-fold use for which the book is designed: (1) that of the Mission-week or Mission-fortnight; (2) that of permanent Missions carried on in the parish. It will be found that all branches of such work are here represented, from the beginning, be it in the open air or in the Mission Room, onward to those later stages in which the work of the Mission passes insensibly into the work and life of the Church.

The Mission week when fully organized may include, besides the evening services to which all are invited, many services of special appeal, e. g. for Sunday-school teachers, for Guilds, for Missionary Society; in workshops, yards, mills; as also services of special intercession; and morning prayer and evening prayer for the Missioners and workers of the Mission. Again, such a Mission may be evangelistic, its sphere the parish, with ramifications throughout the parish; or it may be a Mission held for the congregation, its aim being the quickening of devotion, the increase of spiritual life. Also the scene of the Mission may be a university city, or a village, a west-end or an east-end parish (a consideration which affects the question of the type of hymn that appeals, the objective type or the subjective).

The permanent Mission, again, has needs of its own, although these are less varied. Besides the Mission service each Sunday, it has usually its mothers' meeting, girls' club and class, Mission school, &c., and in cases a service for men only; and, as it is carried on throughout the year, the natural and sacred seasons are remembered in its services as in those of the Church.

Such Missions, too, have their own sick, infirm, and aged; and in this connexion a third use of the book has been considered. Our people, and especially our poor, have very few books of devotion: as a rule, only their Bible and hymnbook; and while, of mission-folk, some turn in sickness to their hymnbook first, as knowing it better, both books are constantly to be found together beside the sick-bed or on the pillow, in time of trouble. A few hymns for which, except for this consideration, ¹ Hymns for the first days of a Mission are so classified that by taking a hymn from each section the Missioner may at once have four or five such as he would wish, and in their proper order.

room might not have been found, appear in the last section among General Hymns; and so far as seemed possible within the scope of the book, some provision has been made for all the needs detailed above, numerous and most various though they are.

The compilers return sincere thanks for the courtesy of authors and owners of copyright who have given permission for the use of their hymns. They trust they will be pardoned any unintentional infringement of copyright or want of acknowledgment in cases where the proprietorship of hymns could not be traced.

Permission to use copyright hymns has been granted as stated below. An asterisk denotes that permission has been granted on payment of a fee. A dagger denotes the death of the author since granting such permission.

PREFACE TO THE MUSIC OF THE HYMNBOOK

IN providing music for the Hymnbook the aim of the compilers has necessarily been to find tunes appropriate to the various hymns contained in it. Care has been taken to preserve, where possible, the traditional association of hymn with tune. Thus hymns derived from existing hymnals are, as a rule, given here with the tunes there assigned to them. In many cases, however, the book has been enriched by the inclusion of tunes not hitherto comprised in our hymnals. These are derived from various sources, and have for the most part stood the test of time. For many of these room was made by the discovery, frequently repeated, of the prohibitive expense that would be incurred in obtaining permission to use modern copyright music. In other cases the compilers have preferred the older tunes, apart from any consideration of expense, believing them to be a better gift to the Church than the ephemeral product of a later day. Where supported by usage, however, the modern tune also has almost always been included.

From a musical point of view it is believed that the tunes from ancient sources will be found to form one of the most valuable features of this collection. If there exists at present a general disposition to pay increasing attention to older forms of music, the reason is that the noble works of earlier times possess a vital force and a sincerity which unfortunately are often lacking in modern music.

The ancient melodies contained in this volume are for the most part either of national or of ecclesiastical origin. Chief among the latter are (1) German chorales, (2) Plain-song hymn-melodies.

1. German chorales. A certain number of these chorales are already included in our Church books. It is to be feared, however, that their beauty and power are far from being adequately recognized. This, in part at least, is owing to the fact that they are usually sung too fast, being treated as if they were of the same character as modern hymn tunes. In reality they are more nearly akin to those old tunes which are the inestimable possession of Scottish psalmody and, like them, should be sung slowly and in a manner suited to the extreme dignity by which they are characterized. In German churches these chorales are sung by the whole congregation in unison, the harmonies, which are often very elaborate, being supplied by the organ. Bearing this usage in view, the compilers have ventured to give certain chorales in settings of great richness and beauty, marking them as to be sung (at desire) in unison. These chorales are eminently suitable for congregational use, the melody being broadly marked and presenting no features of difficulty, while the harmony is reserved for the instrument.

A special feature of the book is the inclusion of several chorales and other tunes in the settings given to them by the great church composer Johann Sebastian Bach. Bach's chorale settings are to some extent already in use in the Church, being found even in Mission hymn-books; but the present volume contains a considerably larger number drawn chiefly from Bach's Church Cantatas and the collection of hymns known as the Schemelli Gesangbuch. The compilers have endeavoured to give Bach's work in a faithful text, without unnecessary alterations. They trust that as a result of their efforts the power and grandeur, no less than the touching simplicity of thought and feeling, which mark these chorales, may be realized by many to whom the existence of so pure a fountain of devotional music has hitherto remained unknown.

2. Plain-song hymn melodies. The ancient plain-song, or plain-chant tunes, such as the Veni Creator Spiritus, have been in use in the Church, both in this country and on the Continent, for many centuries.

They present a certain element of difficulty to those who are unaccustomed to their use, owing to the fact that they date from times when musical rhythm was much more free and less regular in form than it is in our day. We are accustomed to see placed before us either a hymn tune proper, with a definite time-signature throughout, or a chant which combines strict time with free recitation according to a definite plan. The plain-song or plain-chant in its proper form is in free rhythm throughout. No portion of it is in strict time. What difficulty there is in singing plain-song music will be found mainly at the outset, before its character is grasped as thus irregular and free. The old tunes have in them a power which makes itself felt after a little study and practice, and all who bestow upon them attentive care will find that they are their own interpreters and that, once understood, they have a solemnity, dignity, and pathos which are all their own.

A considerable revival of the use of plain-song has recently taken place in other countries. If among ourselves the revival has manifested itself in a slighter measure, this is in some degree to the advantage of the Mission Hymnbook since it has left the compilers more free to go to the best and most authentic sources for the plain-song tunes here given, unhampered as others have been by the existence in current use of poorer forms.

Plain-song music has been found helpful in Mission services as well as in the services of the Church, an experience not surprising seeing that plain-song forms the historical basis of congregational singing. Plain-song is sung by the choir and congregation in unison; the melody is simple and easily grasped; and the effect of the many voices joining in one of these old songs of the Church is, to a singular degree, uplifting and inspiring.

Missioners will find that the present book places in their hands much useful material, greatly varied in its nature and suitable to needs the most diverse in kind. The book will also be found useful in many other ways, for home reading, for family worship, and for church services as a supplement to the general hymnals of the Church. So great is the variety and richness of material, both of words and of music, that the compilers venture to entertain the hope that the collection may find acceptance with all who have at heart the due ordering of the praises of the Church.

It may be specially pointed out that many of the more elaborately harmonized tunes, and especially the 'Songs' of Orlando Gibbons and the chorale settings by J. S. Bach and others, in addition to their use for congregational purposes, will be found to form a most admirable study for trained choirs, sung in four-part harmony, preferably without any accompaniment unless where indicated. Sung in this manner they can with advantage take, on occasion, the place of the anthem in the church service. It is stated in the preface to a recent Hymnal that 'Choirs would be much better occupied in learning these beautiful settings of Bach (which are not hard if practised a little) than in rehearsing vulgar anthems by indifferent composers'. This statement the compilers heartily endorse.

The Manner of Rendering.

(a) Tempo. The Metronome indications prefixed to each tune are to be taken as approximate only. Much is left to the discretion of the organist. It may, however, be observed that where the congregation is very numerous or the building very large, a slower tempo is in certain cases to be recommended; while in the case of very long hymns, to some extent in the case of very long tunes, and particularly in the case of hymns for children, hymns for boys, and marching hymns for open-air singing, a quicker tempo is sometimes suitable. Many tunes, however, remain whose natural expression in terms of tempo is independent of external conditions.

(b) Expression Marks—Congregational Singing. The marks of expression are intended merely as a guide to the intelligent rendering of the tunes, and are to be followed with due caution. To produce sudden and sensational transitions from loud to soft and vice versa is far from being desired by the compilers. Their main object in the use of these marks is to avoid that dull and mechanical monotony which is so frequently the cause of a spiritless and soulless singing of hymns. Where no indication is given it is to be understood that the singing is intended to be moderate in tone. But the expression marks given are not to be slavishly followed, but intelligently studied with a view to arriving at the true dynamic scheme for each hymn. The caution may be given that, unless in certain exceptional cases, the singing should never be much louder, nor much softer, than the broad, full medium tone that is specially characteristic of the best congregational singing. It is possible, and desirable, to give effect to all the shades of expression appearing in the book without deflecting greatly from this broad medium tone. The truth is that intelligent variety in expression can appeal strongly to the mind while kept within such narrow bounds that it is scarcely more than perceptible to the ear. Where a hymn is sung as a solo or by a trained choir in the manner of an anthem, the congregation being silent, a greater range of tone is natural and proper, and the above remarks do not apply.

(c) Solo singing. In Mission services the solo occupies a place similar to that held by the anthem in the services of the Church. Often it is replaced by a congregational hymn of praise; but the occasional use of a single voice, or of two, three, or four single voices, in rendering certain hymns, or certain of their verses, has been found serviceable. A section of the book has been devoted to hymns specially suitable for such use, as being of a didactic nature, addressed to the people; and other hymns also suitable for use as solos will be found in other parts of the book.

Under the guidance of a capable organist or choir-master other variations in rendering may be effected. Single verses sung by solo voices may alternate with verses sung by the whole congregation, or by choir and congregation. Metrical litanies, again, are admirably adapted for being sung by a single voice, the last line of each verse being taken up by the whole choir and congregation, a mode which lightens the task of the singers and adds to the expressiveness. Or the litanies may be sung in alternate verses by the sopranos and altos on the one hand and the tenors and basses on the other. It is recommended that solo parts, except where the contrary is indicated, be sung as a general rule moderately piano. This admits of a more striking contrast with the full body of voices.

The use of solo voices is, however, a matter in regard to which great discrimination must always be exercised ; and a warning may be given against tempo rubato (the arbitrary disregard of the tempo), against uncalled-for use of sforzando (the sudden forcing of the tone), and especially against the vibrato (the thrill in the voice), all of which greatly impair the devotional character of hymns sung by solo voices.

(1) Singing of Plain-song. The Ancient Plain-songs are so distinct in character from other tunes that the manner of singing them calls for a few words of explanation. In certain cases modern settings of plain-songs, which have already been established in use, have been included. These are barred like hymn-tunes. The plain-songs which are here included in their ancient forms are in free (i. e. unmeasured) rhythm throughout. These may be identified by the absence of the time-signature in their case. Where the rhythm is thus unmeasured, bars have nevertheless been used in most cases. These bars, which are almost always in the form of dotted lines, are not time-measures at all. They are simply inserted for the sake of convenience, to help the singers in fitting the music to the words, and placed so as to indicate the end of every fourth, or more commonly every second, syllable of the hymn.

While organ accompaniment has been given in all cases, this should always be kept very light and soft, so as to allow the melody to stand out prominently, and preserve its freedom and flow. The accompaniment should be entirely subsidiary to the melody. It may indeed be dispensed with altogether, with good results. In plain-song the melody is everything, and it should be sung repeatedly till it becomes thoroughly familiar to the singers. Only thus can be attained the combination of a full volume of sound with entire flexibility of movement which marks plain-song well sung.

It will be observed that groups of notes joined by a slur are sung both to the accented and to the unaccented syllables of the hymn. Groups occurring at unaccented syllables should be sung more lightly than those occurring at accented syllables. In the simpler tunes, where only groups of two notes (or three at the most) occur, if care is taken slightly to accent the first note of the group and let the second (or second and third) to some extent diminish in tone, the right effect will be obtained. Groups should never be hurried, but should be sung lightly and evenly.

It may be taken as a maxim of general application that the singing of plain-song melodies is on right lines only if, and so far as, a light, free, rapid, and graceful running melody is the result. If, on the contrary, a heavy lumbering effect is produced, it will probably be found that the accompaniment is over-accentuated, that the tempo is taken too slow, or that the singers are too unfamiliar with the music to grasp the finer details of the melody.

The compilers tender their grateful acknowledgments to all those who have granted permission for the use of copyright tunes. They have endeavoured in every case to trace and to communicate with the owner of copyright. If in any instance a copyright has been unintentionally infringed, it is hoped that the infringement will be pardoned. Special acknowledgment is due to the Proprietors of Hymns Ancient and Modern for their courtesy in granting permission to use so many of the tunes which are their copyright. A special debt of gratitude is likewise due to the Rev. G. H. Palmer, B.A., who generously allowed the use of the plain-song harmonies made by him and published in The Office Hymn Book.

The compilers further desire to express their thanks to Mr. J. O. Anderson, Edinburgh, for the painstaking care and skill shown by him in the preparation of the Tonic Sol-Fa editions and of the Musical Indexes, and also for valuable help given by him when the book was passing through the press. And they offer a very special meed of gratitude to their secretary and coadjutor, Mr. A. C. Montgomerie Bell.

The following is a list of the copyright owners to whom the compilers are indebted for the use of tunes, and to whom they desire to record their thanks. An asterisk denotes that permission has been granted on payment of a fee.

Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

p 2 Nearer, ever nearer,
CHRIST, we draw to Thee
Deep in adoration,
Bending low the knee;
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die :

f Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

3 Great and ever greater
Are Thy mercies here,
True and everlasting
Are the glories there :

p Where no pain or sorrow,
Toil or care, is known,
Where the angel-legions
Circle round Thy throne.

4 Dark and ever darker
Was the wintry past :
cr Now a ray of gladness
O'er our path is cast ;

f 5 Clearer still and clearer
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing
News of sin forgiven ;
Life has lost its shadows,
Pure the light within ;
Thou hast shed Thy radiance
On a world of sin.

6 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God :
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

7 Bliss, all bliss excelling,
When the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgetting,
Finds its promised goal ;
Where, in joys unheard of,
Saints with angels sing,
Never weary raising Praises to their King.

f STAND up and bless the LORD,
Ye people of His choice ;
Stand up and bless the LORD your God
With heart and soul and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear His holy Name,
And laud and magnify ?

3 O for the living flame
From His own altar brought,

To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought.

4 God is our strength and song,
And His salvation ours :
Then be His love in CHRIST proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.

THE NAME OF GOD

REFRAIN.

'Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.'

f PRAISE, praise ye the name of JEHOVAH, our God;
 Declare, O declare ye His glories abroad;
 Proclaim ye His mercy from nation to nation
 Till the uttermost islands have heard His salvation.
*For His love floweth on, free and full as a river;
 And His mercy endureth for ever and ever.*

2 Praise, praise ye the LAMB, who for sinners was slain;
 Who went down to the grave and ascended again;
 And who soon shall return, when these dark days are o'er,
 To set up His Kingdom in glory and power.

3 Then the heavens and the earth and the sea shall rejoice;
 The field and the forest shall lift their glad voice;
 For the King cometh down, with His people to reign,
 And His presence shall bless us with Eden again.

GERONTIUS. (C.M.)

Rev. J. B. DYKES, Mus.D.

'The second man is the Lord from heaven.'

f PRAISE to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise—
In all His words most wonderful,
Most sure in all His ways.

2 O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

3 O wisest love! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,

6 And in the garden secretly,
And on the cross on high,
Should teach His brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.

f 7 Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise—
In all His words most wonderful,
Most sure in all His ways.

Should strive afresh against the foe,
Should strive and should prevail;

p 4 And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine—
God's presence and His very self
And essence all-Divine.

5 O generous love! that He who smote
In Man, for man, the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo,

HEBER. (7.6.7.6.D.)

LOWELL MASON, Mus.D.

'To-day, if ye will hear His voice.'

p TO-DAY Thy mercy calls us
 To wash away our sin,
 However great our trespass,
 Whatever we have been;
 However long from mercy
 Our hearts have turned away, cr Thy precious blood can cleanse us
 And make us white to-day.

p 2 To-day our FATHER calls us,
 His HOLY SPIRIT waits;
 His blessed angels gather
 Around the heavenly gates;
 No question will be asked us
 How often we have come;
 Although we oft have wandered,
 It is our FATHER's home.

cr 3 O all-embracing mercy!
 O ever-open door!
 What should we do without Thee
 When heart and eye run o'er?
p When all things seem against us,
 To drive us to despair,
f We know one gate is open,
 One Ear will hear our prayer!

'Be of good comfort; rise, He calleth thee.'

- f* O COME to the merciful SAVIOUR who calls you,
 O come to the LORD who forgives and forgets;
 Though dark be the fortune on earth that befalls you,
 There's a bright home above, where the sun never sets.
- cr* O come then to JESUS, whose arms are extended
 To fold His dear children in closest embrace:
 O come, for your exile will shortly be ended,
 And JESUS will show you His beautiful face.
- 2 Yes, come to the SAVIOUR, whose mercy grows brighter
 The longer you look at the depth of His love;
 And fear not! 'tis JESUS! and life's cares grow lighter
 As you think of the home and the glory above.
- p* Have you sinned as none else in the world have before you?
 Are you blacker than all other creatures in guilt?
 O fear not, and doubt not! the mother who bore you Loves you less than the SAVIOUR whose blood you have spilt.
- 3 O come then to JESUS, and say how you love Him,
 And vow at His feet you will keep in His grace;
 For one tear that is shed by a sinner can move Him,
 And your sins will drop off in His tender embrace.
 Then come to His feet, and lay open your story
 Of suffering and sorrow, of guilt and of shame;
- cr* For the pardon of sin is the crown of His glory,
f And the joy of our LORD to be true to His name.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, Mus. D.

'Thy name is as ointment poured forth.'

- p* JESUS, the very thought of Thee
 With sweetness fills my breast;
 But sweeter far Thy face to see
 And in Thy presence rest.
- 2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
 Nor can the memory find
 A sweeter sound than Thy blest name,
 O SAVIOUR of mankind.
- 3 O Hope of every contrite heart,
 O Joy of all the meek,
cr To those who fall how kind Thou art!
 How good to those who seek!
- 4 But what to those who find? Ah, this
 Nor tongue nor pen can show;
 The love of JESUS, what it is None but His loved ones know.
- f* 5 JESUS, our only joy be Thou,
 As Thou our prize wilt be:
 JESUS, be Thou our glory now
 And through eternity.

 Love Thee as Thou lovest us, Yet, if Thou deign'st our hearts to kindle,
 We shall not be always thus.

p DEPTH of mercy! can there be Mercy still reserved for me?
 Can my God His wrath forbear—
 Me, the chief of sinners, spare?
 2 I have long withstood His grace,
 Long provoked Him to His face;
 Would not hearken to His calls,
 Grieved Him by a thousand falls.
 3 Whence to me this waste of love?
 Ask my Advocate above!

See the cause in JESUS' face
 Now before the throne of grace.
 4 There for me the SAVIOUR stands, Shows His wounds and spreads His hands;
 God is love, I know, I feel:
 JESUS weeps, and loves me still.
 5 If I rightly read Thy heart,
 If Thou all compassion art,
 Bow Thine ear, in mercy bow,
 Pardon and accept me now.

COME, O COME. (S.6.S.6.D.)

IRA D. SANKEY.

'The Spirit and the Bride say, Come.'

p COME, O come with thy broken heart,
 Weary and worn with care;
 Come and kneel at the open door,
 Jesus is waiting there:
 Waiting to heal thy wounded soul,
 Waiting to give thee rest— [fall?]
cr Why wilt thou walk where shadows
 Come to His loving breast.

2 Firmly cling to the blessed cross,
 There shall thy refuge be;
 Wash thee now in the crimson fount,
 Flowing so pure for thee:

List to the gentle, warning voice:
 List to the earnest call—
 Leave at the cross thy burden now:
 Jesus will bear it all.

3 Come and taste of the precious feast,
 Feast of eternal love;
 Think of joys that for ever bloom,
 Bright in the life above:
f Come with a trusting heart to God,
 Come and be saved by grace;
 Come, for He longs to clasp thee
 now
 Close in His dear embrace.

p MY sins, my sins, my SAVIOUR !

 They laid, my LORD, on Thee.
p 3 MY sins, my sins, my SAVIOUR !

 Till with Thee in the desert cr I near Thy passion drew,

 E'en in this time of woe,
 Shall tell of all Thy goodness
 To suffering man below.

p HUSH, my soul: what voice is pleading?
 Thou canst feel its silent power.
 Who is this that speaks so gently
 In this solemn evening hour?
 'Stay, poor sinner; life is fleeting,
 And thy soul is dark within;
 Wilt thou wait till outer darkness
 Close in gloom thy life of sin?'
 2 What is this that steals upon me?
 Can it be that at my side
 In His own mysterious presence Stands the wondrous Crucified?

'Why, poor sinner, wilt thou linger?
 I am waiting to forgive;
 See the meaning of these wound-prints;
 I have died that thou may'st live.'
 3 Hush, my soul: it is thy SAVIOUR,
 And He seeks His lost one now.
 He is waiting; flee not from Him,
 Venture near, before Him bow.
 Tell thy sins; He will forgive thee
 And He will not love thee less;
 For the human heart of Jesus
 Overflows with tenderness.

APPROACH TO GOD

'In the midst of the throne a Lamb as it had been slain.'

p WEARY of earth and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in ;
But there no evil thing may find a home,
cr And yet I hear a voice that bids me, Come.

p 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land,
Before the whiteness of that throne appear ?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Evil is ever with me day by day ;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall—
Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all.

cr 4 It is the voice of JESUS that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
And His the blood that can for all atone
And set me faultless there before the throne.

5 O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,
That in the FATHER'S courts my glorious dress
May be the garment of Thy righteousness.

- 4 They marked the footsteps that He trod,

London Tune Book.

[From the London Tune Book, by permission.]

'Return unto Me, and I will return unto you.'

p WEARY of wandering from my God,
 And now made willing to return,
 I hear and bow me to the rod ;
 For Thee, not without hope, I mourn ;
 I have an Advocate above,
 A Friend before the throne of love.

cr 2 O Jesus, full of pardoning grace,
 More full of grace than I of sin,
 Yet once again I seek Thy face ;
 Open Thine arms and take me in ;
 And freely my backslidings heal,
 And love the faithless sinner still.

3 Thou knowest the way to bring me back,
 My fallen spirit to restore ;
 O for Thy truth and mercy's sake
 Forgive, and bid me sin no more ;
 The ruins of my soul repair,
 And make my heart a house of prayer.

p 4 Ah, give me, LORD, the tender heart That trembles at the approach of sin ;
 A godly fear of sin impart :
 Implant and root it deep within,
 That I may dread Thy gracious power,
 And never dare offend Thee more.

 Thou stoodest in the sinner's stead,

 A victim led, Thy blood was shed :
cr Now there's no load for me.

p 2 The tempest's awful voice was heard.
 O CHRIST, it broke on Thee ;
 Thy open bosom was my ward,
 It braved the storm for me,
 Thy form was scarred, Thy visage marred :
cr Now cloudless peace for me.

p 3 For me, LORD JESUS, Thou hast died,

$\text{♩} = 72.$

'Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind.'

p MY LORD, my Master, at Thy feet adoring
I see Thee bowed beneath Thy load of woe ;
For me, a sinner, is Thy life-blood pouring :
For Thee, my SAVIOUR, scarce my tears will flow.

2 Thine own disciple to the Jews has sold Thee :
With friendship's kiss and loyal word he came ;
How oft of faithful love my lips have told Thee,
While Thou hast seen my falsehood and my shame !

3 My LORD, my SAVIOUR, when I see Thee wearing
Upon Thy sacred brow the crown of thorn,
Shall I for pleasure live, or shrink from bearing What'e'er may be my lot of pain or scorn ?

4 O victim of Thy love ! O pangs most healing !
O saving death ! O fruitful agonies !
I pray Thee, CHRIST, before Thee humbly kneeling,
For ever keep Thy cross before mine eyes.

p O LAMB of God, once wounded,
 With grief and pain weighed

f 2 O LORD of life and glory,
 What bliss till now was Thine ;
 I read the wondrous story—

p Thy grief and Thy compassion

f 3 What language shall I borrow
 To praise Thee, heavenly Friend,

 Thy pity without end ?

p LORD, make me Thine for ever,
 Nor let me faithless prove ;

 Abuse such dying love.

WELCOME VOICE. (S.M. and refrain.)

L. HARTSOUGH.

REFRAIN.

'The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me.'

f I HEAR Thy welcome voice
That calls me, LORD, to Thee,
For cleansing in Thy precious blood
That flowed on Calvary.
*I am coming, Lord,
Coming now to Thee ;
Wash me, cleanse me in the blood
That flowed on Calvary.*

2 Though coming weak and vile,
Thou dost my strength assure ;
Thou dost my vileness fully cleanse,
Till spotless all and pure.

3 'Tis JESUS calls me on
To perfect faith and love,
To perfect hope and peace and trust
For earth and heaven above.

4 'Tis JESUS who confirms
The blessed work within,
By adding grace to welcomed grace
Where reigned the power of sin.

5 And He the witness gives
To loyal hearts and free,
That every promise is fulfilled
If faith but brings the plea.

6 All hail ! atoning blood.
All hail ! redeeming grace.
All hail ! the gift of CHRIST our LORD,
Our Strength and Righteousness.

URSWICKE. (11.11.11.11.)

SIR GEORGE J. ELVEY, MUS.D.

'The name of the Lord is a strong tower.'

f JESUS, I will trust Thee, trust Thee with my soul;
 Guilty, lost, and helpless, Thou canst make me whole.
 There is none in heaven or on earth like Thee :
 Thou hast died for sinners—therefore, LORD, for me.

2 JESUS, I will trust Thee : name of matchless worth,
 Spoken by the angel ere Thy wondrous birth ;
 Written, and for ever, on Thy cross of shame ;
 Sinners read and worship, trusting in that name.

3 JESUS, I will trust Thee, pondering Thy ways,
 Full of love and mercy all Thine earthly days :
 Sinners gathered round Thee, lepers sought Thy face—
 None too vile or loathsome for a SAVIOUR'S grace.

4 JESUS, I will trust Thee, trust Thy written word,
 Though Thy voice of pity I have never heard :
 When Thy SPIRIT teacheth, to my taste how sweet—
 Only may I hearken, sitting at Thy feet.

5 JESUS, I will trust Thee, trust without a doubt :
 Whosoever cometh, Thou wilt not cast out.
 Faithful is Thy promise, precious is Thy blood,
 These my soul's salvation : Thou my SAVIOUR GOD.

REDHEAD, No. 47. (7.7.7.7.)

RICHARD REDHEAD.

'Be merciful unto me, O God.'

» SINFUL, sighing to be blest;
Bound, and longing to be free;
Weary, waiting for my rest:
God be merciful to me.

2 Goodness I have none to plead,
Sinfulness in all I see,
I can only bring my need:
God be merciful to me.

3 Broken heart and downcast eyes
Dare not lift themselves to Thee,
Yet Thou canst interpret sighs:
God be merciful to me.

4 From this sinful heart of mine
To Thy bosom I would flee:
I am not my own but Thine:
God be merciful to me.

cr 5 There is One beside the Throne,
And my only hope and plea
Are in Him and Him alone:
God be merciful to me.

6 He my cause will undertake,
My Interpreter will be:
He's my all: and for His sake
God be merciful to me.

'I, if I be lifted up.'

From the earth for me,
Draw me in Thy mercy
Nearer unto Thee.
- 2 Speed these lagging footsteps,
Melt this heart of ice,
As I scan the marvels
Of Thy sacrifice.
- 3 Lift my earth-bound longings,
Fix them, LORD, above :
Draw me with the magnet
Of Thy mighty love.
- 4 LORD, Thine arms are stretching Ever far and wide
To enfold Thy children
To Thy loving side ;
- 5 And I come, O JESUS—
Dare I turn away ?
No—Thy love hath conquered,
And I come to-day :
- p* 6 Bringing all my burdens,
Sorrow, sin, and care.
cr At Thy feet I lay them
And I leave them there.

'Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.'

p I HEARD the voice of JESUS say,
 'Come unto Me and rest;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay cr I came to JESUS as I was,

p 2 I heard the voice of JESUS say,

 The living water: thirsty one,
 Stoop down and drink and live.'

cr I came to JESUS, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in Him.

p 3 I heard the voice of JESUS say,

GOSPEL

'I am the good shepherd.'

f THERE were ninety and nine that safely lay
In the shelter of the fold,
p But one was out on the hills away
Far off from the gates of gold :
Away on the mountains wild and bare,
Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

f 2 'LORD, Thou hast here Thy ninety and nine ;
Are they not enough for Thee ?'
But the Shepherd made answer : ' This of Mine
Has wandered away from Me
And, although the road be rough and steep,
I go to the desert to find My sheep.'

p 3 But none of the ransomed ever knew
How deep were the waters crossed,
Nor how dark was the night that the LORD passed through Ere He found His sheep that was lost.
Out in the desert He heard its cry—
Sick and helpless, and ready to die.

4 'LORD, whence are those blood-drops all the way,
That mark out the mountain's track ?'
'They were shed for one who had gone astray
Ere the Shepherd could bring him back.'
'LORD, whence are Thy hands so rent and torn ?'
'They are piercèd to-night by many a thorn.'

f 5 And all through the mountains thunder-riven
And up from the rocky steep,
There rose a cry to the gate of heaven,
'Rejoice ! I have found My sheep.'
And the angels echoed around the throne,
'Rejoice, for the LORD brings back His own !'

G. F. ROOT.

NOTE.—The first and third bars may be sung in four equal notes.

'Behold, I stand at the door.'

p KNOCKING, knocking, who is there?
Waiting, waiting, O how fair!

f 'Tis a pilgrim, strange and kingly,
Never such was seen before.

dim Ah, my soul, for such a wonder Wilt thou not undo the door?

p 2 Knocking, knocking—still He's there:
Waiting, waiting, wondrous fair.

f But the door is hard to open,
For the weeds and ivy-vine
With their dark and clinging tendrils
Ever round the hinges twine.

p 3 Knocking, knocking—what, still there?
Waiting, waiting, grand and fair!

f Yes, the piercèd hand still knocketh,
And beneath the crownèd hair
Beam the patient eyes, so tender,
Of thy SAVIOUR waiting there.

HOME, SWEET HOME. (7.6.7.6.D.)

ALTERNATIVE TUNE, HEBER, No. 19.

'Ye are washed, . . . ye are sanctified.'

p REDEEMED, restored, forgiven,
Through Jesus' precious blood,
Heirs of His home in heaven,
cr O praise our pardoning God.
Praise Him in tuneful measures
Who gave His Son to die:
Praise Him whose sevenfold treasures
Enrich and sanctify.

p 2 Once on the dreary mountain
We wandered far and wide,
Far from the cleansing fountain,
Far from the Pierced Side;
cr But Jesus sought and found us
And washed our guilt away;
With cords of love He bound us
To be His own for aye.

f 3 O SAVIOUR, Thine the glory
Of each recovered soul;
Ah, who can tell the story
Of love that made us whole?
Not ours, not ours the merit:
Be Thine alone the praise,
And ours a thankful spirit
To serve Thee all our days.

4 Now keep us, Holy SAVIOUR,
In Thy true love and fear;
And grant us of Thy favour
The grace to persevere;
cr Till in Thy new creation,

A - men.

'I have prayed for thee.'

p IN the hour of trial,
 JESUS, pray for me,
 Lest by base denial
 I depart from Thee.
 When Thou seest me waver,
 With a look recall,

 Suffer me to fall.

 Would this vain world charm,
 Or its sordid treasures
 Spread to work me harm—
 Bring to my remembrance
 Sad Gethsemane,

 Cross-crowned Calvary.

 Pour Thy benediction

cr Then, upon Thine altar, Freely offered up,
 Though the flesh may falter,
 Faith shall drink the cup.

 On Thy truth relying Through the mortal strife, p LORD, receive me, dying,

f LOVE Divine, all loves excelling, Joy of heaven, to earth come down—
 Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
 All Thy faithful mercies crown.
p Jesus, Thou art all compassion,
 Pure, unbounded love Thou art :
cr Visit us with Thy salvation,
 Enter every trembling heart.

f 2 Come, Almighty to deliver,
 Let us all Thy grace receive ;
 Suddenly return, and never,
 Never more Thy temples leave.
cr Thee we would be always blessing,
 Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
 Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,
 Glory in Thy perfect love.

f 3 Finish, then, Thy new creation,
 Pure and spotless let us be ;
 Let us see Thy great salvation,
 Perfectly restored in Thee :
 Changed from glory into glory,
 Till in heaven we take our place,
 Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
 Lost in wonder, love and praise.

And brace thy heart and nerve thine arm.
- 3 Take up thy cross nor heed the shame,
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel;
Thy LORD for thee the cross endured
To save thy soul from death and hell.

THY LIFE WAS GIVEN FOR ME.

(6, 6, 6, 6, 6, 6.)

Sir GEORGE MACFARREN, Mus.D.

Slow and soft.

For the last verse only.

'Fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ.'

p THY life was given for me,
 Thy blood, O LORD, was shed,
 That I might ransomed be
 And quickened from the dead.
 Thy life was given for me :
 What have I given for Thee ?

2 Long years were spent for me
 In weariness and woe,
 That through eternity
 Thy glory I might know.
 Long years were spent for me :
 Have I spent one for Thee ?

cr 3 And Thou hast brought to me Down from Thy home above
 Salvation full and free,
 Thy pardon and Thy love.
 Great gifts Thou broughtest me :
p What have I brought to Thee ?

f 4 O let my life be given,
 My years for Thee be spent ;
 World-fetters all be riven,
 And joy with suffering blent.
 Thou gav'st Thyself for me—

- f* 4 O Life, the well that ever flows

DOMINUS REGIT ME. (8.7.8.7.)

Rev. J. B. DYKES, Mus.D.

'The Lord is my shepherd ; I shall not want.'

- f* THE King of Love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never ;
 I nothing lack if I am His
 And He is mine for ever.
- 2 Where streams of living water flow
 My ransomed soul He leadeth,
 And where the verdant pastures grow
 With food celestial feedeth.

- p* 3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
 But yet in love He sought me,
 And on His shoulder gently laid, cr And home rejoicing brought me.
- p* 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
 With Thee, dear Lord, beside me—
 Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
 Thy cross before to guide me.

- f* 5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight ;
 Thy unction grace bestoweth ;
 And O what transport of delight
 From Thy pure chalice floweth.
- 6 And so through all the length of days
 Thy goodness faileth never ;
 Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
 Within Thy house for ever.

'The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.'

f O THOU, before the world began Ordained a sacrifice for man,
 And by th' Eternal SPIRIT made
 An offering in the sinner's stead:
 Our everlasting Priest art Thou,
 Pleading Thy death for sinners now.

2 Thy offering still continues new
 Before the righteous FATHER's view;
 Thyself the LAMB for ever slain,
 Thy priesthood doth unchanged remain:
 Thy years, O God, can never fail,
 Nor Thy blest work within the veil.

OF LIFE IN CHRIST

3 O that our faith may never move
 But stand unshaken as Thy love,
 Sure evidence of things unseen !
 Now let it pass the years between,
 And view Thee bleeding on the tree—
 My LORD, my God, that diest for me.

Welsh Hymn Melody.

ALTERNATIVE TUNE, ST. AGNES, SCOTTISH HYMNAL, No. 320,
AND CHURCH HYMNARY, No. 415.

'Come ye yourselves apart, . . . and rest awhile.'

- f* COME ye yourselves apart and rest awhile,
Weary, I know it, of the press and throng;
Wipe from your brow the sweat and dust of toil,
And in My quiet strength again be strong.
- 2 Come ye aside from all the world holds dear,
For converse which the world has never known,
Alone with Me and with My FATHER here—
With Me and with My FATHER not alone.
- 3 Come, tell Me all that ye have said and done—
Your victories and failures, hopes and fears.
- p* I know how hardly souls are wooed and won:
My choicest wreaths are always wet with tears.
- . 4 Come ye and rest: the journey is too great
And ye will faint beside the way, and sink;
cr The bread of life is here for you to eat
And here for you the wine of love to drink.
- 5 Then, fresh from converse with your LORD, return
And work till daylight softens into even:
The brief hours are not lost in which ye learn
More of your Master and His rest in heaven.

ESSEX. (C.M. with repeat.)

From the European Psalmist.

[By permission. From DR. S. S. WESLEY'S European Psalmist.]

'Jesus leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves; and He was transfigured before them.'

- p* WITH weary feet and saddened heart
From toil and care we flee,
And come, O dearest Lord, apart
To rest awhile with Thee.
- 2 The courts of heaven were lost to view,
The world had come between;
cr But here the veil is rent in two:
We see the things unseen.
- p* 3 Our sins, in Thy pure light descried, Stand out in dread array;
f But here in Love's absolving tide
Their guilt is washed away.
- p* 4 With strife of tongues distraught and worn
Our troublous way we trod, cr But cast ourselves this holy morn
Into the peace of God.
- f* 5 And O what depth of joy, as thus
We bend the trembling knee,
To know that Thou art one with us
And we are one with Thee.

- f* O THOU Who makest souls to shine
 With light from lighter worlds above, p And dropp'st glistening dew divine
 On all who seek a SAVIOUR'S love:
- cr 2* Do Thou Thy benediction give
 On all who teach, on all who learn,
 That so Thy Church may holier live
 And every lamp more brightly burn.
- f 3* Give those who teach pure hearts and wise,
 Faith, hope and love, all warmed by prayer;
 Themselves first training for the skies,
 They best will raise their people there.
- p 4* Give those who learn the willing ear,
 The spirit meek, the guileless mind;
 Such gifts will make the lowliest here
 Far better than a kingdom find.
- cr 5* O bless the shepherd: bless the sheep;
 That guide and guided both be one—
 One in the faithful watch they keep Until this hurrying life be done.

And crown Thy gifts with strength to persevere.
- p* 4 And so we come: O draw us to Thy feet,
Most patient SAVIOUR, who canst love us still;
- cr* And by this Food, so awful and so sweet,
Deliver us from every touch of ill.

Sir GEORGE J. ELVEY, Mus.D.

'And there was Light.'

- p* AMIDST the thick darkness that mantled creation,
The face of the waters lay hidden from sight,
All formless and void, till the LORD of Salvation

G. M. GARRETT, Mus.D.

‘Stand fast in one spirit, striving together for the faith of the Gospel.

f THE call to arms is sounding,
The foemen muster strong,
While saints beneath the altar
Are crying ‘LORD, how long?’
The living and the loving CHRIST’s royal standard raise,
And marching on to conflict
Shout forth their Captain’s praise.

2 No time for self-indulgence,
For resting by the way;
Repose will come at even,
But toil is for the day:

cr Work, like the blessed Jesus,
Who from His earliest youth
Would do His FATHER’s business
And witness for the truth.

*3 For the one Faith, the true Faith,
The Faith which cannot fail;

*For the one Church, the true Church,
‘Gainst which no foes prevail—
Made one with God Incarnate,
We in His might must win
The glory of self-conquest,
Of victory over sin.

4 O JESUS, who art waiting
Thy faithful ones to crown,
Vouchsafe to bless our conflict,
Our loving service own;
Come in each heart for ever
As King adored to reign,
Till we with saints triumphant Uplift the victor strain.

* NOTE.—In verse 3, lines 1 and 3, two syllables are sung to the first note, the second and third notes being slurred.

TEACHERS.

'Behold I have put My words in thy mouth.'

f SHINE Thou upon us, LORD,
True Light of men, to-day,
And through the written word
Thy very self display,
That so from hearts which burn
With gazing on Thy face
Thy little ones may learn
The wonders of Thy grace.

2 Breathe Thou upon us, LORD,
Thy SPIRIT's living flame,
That so with one accord
Our lips may tell Thy name.
Give Thou the hearing ear,
Fix Thou the wandering thought,
That those we teach may hear
The great things Thou hast wrought.

3 Speak Thou for us, O LORD,
In all we say of Thee,
According to Thy word
Let all our teaching be,
p That so Thy lambs may know
Their own true Shepherd's voice,
Where'er He leads them go
And in His love rejoice.

cr 4 Live Thou within us, LORD;
Thy mind and will be ours;
Be Thou beloved, adored
And served, with all our powers—
That so our lives may teach
Thy children what Thou art,
And plead by more than speech
For Thee with every heart.

TEMPERANCE.

'The Lord hath done great things for us.'

f O THOU before whose presence
p Naught evil may come in,
 Yet who dost look in mercy
 Down on this world of sin :
cr O give us noble purpose
 To set the sin-bound free,
 And CHRIST-like tender pity
 To seek the lost for Thee.
f 2 Fierce is our subtle foeman :
 The forces at his hand
 With words that none can number
 Despoil the pleasant land ;

All they who war against them
 In strife so keen and long,
 Must in their SAVIOUR'S armour
 Be stronger than the strong.
 3 Lead on, O Love and Mercy,
 O Purity and Power :
 Lead on till peace eternal
 Shall close this battle-hour :
 Till all who prayed and struggled
 To set their brethren free, cr In triumph meet to praise Thee,
 Most Holy TRINITY.

MISSIONS ABROAD.

'Come over . . . and help us.'

f FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
 From India's coral strand,
 Where Afric's sunny fountains
 Roll down their golden sand :
 From many an ancient river,
 From many a palmy plain,
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.

p 2 What though the spicy breezes
 Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
 Though every prospect pleases
 And only man is vile ?
 In vain with lavish kindness
 The gifts of God are strown,
 The heathen in his blindness
 Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high,
 Can we to men benighted
 The lamp of life deny ?
cr Salvation, O salvation !
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till each remotest nation
 Has learnt MESSIAH's name.

f 4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story ;
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till like a sea of glory
 It spreads from pole to pole :
 Till o'er our ransomed nature
 The LAMB for sinners slain, Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign.

 From the frozen realms of midnight,
 Over many a weary mile,
 To exchange their soul's long winter
 For the summer of His smile.

 All to sing His praises sweet—
 What a chorus, what a meeting,

'To prove the sincerity of your love.'

- f* CHRIST is calling! hear His message,
As it comes across the deep,
From the lips of countless thousands
Who in chains and darkness weep.
CHRIST is asking you to help Him
With your life and with your gold;

Surely God requires a share!
Think of all His loving-kindness,
Think of all His tender care.

To the wail of those who grope
In the midst of heathen darkness,
Waiting for the Star of Hope.

Makes our pathway bright and

Bring your gift, however costly,
Bring your gift, however small;
CHRIST Himself, your loving SAVIOUR,
Gifted to the world His all.

FOR GUILDS.

FOR A GUILD OF MEN.

'Wherefore God also hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow.'

f AT the name of JESUS
 Every knee shall bow,
 Every tongue confess Him
 King of glory now;
 'Tis the FATHER'S pleasure
 We should call Him LORD,
 Who from the beginning
 Was the mighty WORD.

- 2 At His voice creation
 Sprang at once to sight :
 All the angel faces,
 All the hosts of light,
 Thrones and dominations,
 Stars upon their way,
 All the heavenly orders,
 In their great array.
- p* 3 Humbled for a season,
 To receive a name
 From the lips of sinners
 Unto whom He came,
 Faithfully He bore it
 Spotless to the last,
 Brought it back victorious
 When from death He passed :
- f* 4 Bore it up triumphant
 With its human light,
 Through all ranks of creatures
 To the central height,
 To the throne of Godhead,
 To the FATHER'S breast :
 Filled it with the glory
 Of that perfect rest.
- 5 Name Him, brothers, name Him
 With love as strong as death, p But with awe and wonder
 And with bated breath ;
 He is GOD the SAVIOUR,
 He is CHRIST the LORD,
cr Ever to be worshipped,
 Trusted and adored.
- f* 6 In your hearts enthrone Him ;
 There let Him subdue
 All that is not holy,
 All that is not true.
 Crown Him as your Captain
 In temptation's hour ;
 Let His will enfold you
 In its light and power.
- 7 Brothers, this LORD JESUS
 Shall return again
 With His FATHER'S glory,
 With His angel train ;
 For all wreaths of empire
 Meet upon His brow,
 And our hearts confess Him
 King of glory now.

'We have heard with our ears, and our fathers have told us.'

f BELIEVING fathers oft have told
 What things by God were done,
 When faithful men in days of old
 The life-long battle won ;
p And now when God calls us to life
 And sin allures each man,
 We choose our side in the mortal cr To fight as best we can ; [strife,
f Like brothers true, of one accord
 To hold one faith and serve one LORD.

2 Our King has come to claim His own,
 Has paid the debt we owe ;
p Himself has fought the fight alone.
 In straits we cannot know :
 Amid the world's confused noise,
 Where we but darkly see, [voice, cr The CHRIST appeals with sweet clear
 My brothers, follow Me :
f Like brothers true, of one accord
 To hold one faith and serve one LORD.

- f* 3 His Church our shelter, He our guide,
Our strength His healing cross,
We'll range ourselves upon His side
Where none can suffer loss.
We're safe behind our SAVIOUR'S shield ;
He makes us heirs of heaven.
We claim upon the embattled field
The victory CHRIST has given ;
Like brothers true, of one accord
To hold one faith and serve one LORD.
- p* 4 And yet, O CHRIST, our SAVIOUR King,
Unless Thou keep us Thine,
Our faith will soon dry at the spring,
Our love will shrink and pine,
So by Thy SPIRIT help us, LORD,
- cr* Inspire our hearts to pray :
Our hungry souls feed with Thy word :
f Teach all our Guild to say—
True brothers we, of one accord,
We hold one faith, we serve one LORD.
- f* 5 We fain would do our Master's part
And help our fellow-men ;
Would cheer some lonely brother's heart,
Some fallen one lift again ; [home
Would serve the Church abroad, at
With hearts from self set free,
Striving to make Thy kingdom
O God, so may it be ; [come—
That, brothers true, with one accord
We hold the faith and serve the LORD.

FOR A GUILD OF WOMEN.

'Women . . . which ministered unto Him of their substance.'

- p* O CHRIST the LORD, who died for me,
Teach me to know Thy will,
That from Thyself I too may learn How best to serve Thee still
In daily life and hearty work,
At home, abroad, where'er
Thou callest me to follow Thee :
Be this my only care.
- f* And thus we too, with one accord,
May minister to CHRIST the LORD.
- p* 2 Once, LORD, in holy Galilee
Where walked Thy bless'd feet,
The women followed in the way
Or hastened Thee to meet.
They ministered to Thee, and now
I find an open door ;
For she still giveth to the LORD
Who giveth to the poor.
- f* And thus we too, with one accord,
May minister to CHRIST the LORD.
- p* 3 Once Mary sat at Thy dear feet
And found the better part ;
The one thing needful for the soul—
That one thing, LORD, Thou art ;
For Thou hast taught us well to know
How willing we may be
Some earthly suffering to bear,
Some pain, or cross for Thee ;
- cr* That so we too, with one accord,
May minister to CHRIST the LORD.
- p* 4 Once, LORD, before Thine awful cross
When Thou wast hanging there,
The women prayed, and wondered
The FATHER did not spare. [why
They did not know the doom of sin
That on Thy head must fall :
We know it now, and worship Thee
That Thou did'st die for all.
- cr* And knowing this, with one accord
We minister to CHRIST the LORD.
- p* 5 Once, too, at early morning dawn
Upon Thy holy day,
Four women gathered at the tomb
Where the LORD silent lay.
They found it empty—Thou hadst ris'n
Unseen by mortal eyes :
O teach us, LORD, this secret too,
With Thee to live and rise.
- cr* And we shall all with one accord
Thus minister to CHRIST the LORD.
- p* 6 Once, LORD, within the Upper Room
Where sad apostles prayed,
With one accord the women met,
And joined the prayers they made
- cr* Till the great morn of Pentecost
Should come. O let us now
Behold the FATHER's word fulfilled,
The SPIRIT'S fulness know.
- f* And we shall all with one accord
Then minister to CHRIST the LORD.

EISENACH. (L.M.)

Very slow and solemn.

J. H. SCHEIN,
Harmony by J. S. BACH.

'Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.'

p O SAVIOUR, listen to the song Which from our gladdened lives ascends,
And lift us by Thy SPIRIT strong
Above the taint of earthly ends.

2 Thy love fell warm on Mary's heart
While she sat listening at Thy feet:
Though Martha chose the lower part,
Her service still to Thee was sweet.

3 As Thou didst weep for Lazarus
Yet knowing he should rise again,
We look to Thee to pour on us
Fresh pity for our briefest pain.

4 LORD, by the ladder of Thy love
For those three lives in Bethany, or With lightened steps we mount above
To knowledge and to love of Thee.

HENRY SMART.

'Do all in the name of the Lord Jesus.'

f SONS of labour, dear to JESUS,
 To your homes and work again!
 Go with brave hearts back to duty,
 Face the peril, bear the pain.
dim Be your dwellings ne'er so lowly,
 Yet remember by your bed
 That the SON of GOD most holy p Had His not where to lay His head.

FOR MEN'S SERVICES

- 2 Sons of labour, think of JESUS
As you rest your homes within—
Of that sweet Babe, born of Mary
In the stable of the inn.
Think upon the sacred story :
CHRIST arose from humble grade,
And the LORD of Life and Glory
Worked with Joseph at his trade.
- cr* 3 Sons of labour, be like JESUS
Undeveloped, harmless, pure,
And, though Satan tempt you sorely,
By His grace you shall endure.
Husband, father, son and brother,
Be ye gentle, just and true ;
Be ye kind to one another
As the LORD is kind to you.
- p* 4 Sons of labour, go to JESUS
In your sorrow, shame, and loss ;
He is nearest, you are dearest,
When you bravely bear His cross :
- dim* Go to Him who died to save you
And is still the sinner's Friend,
And the great love which forgave you
Will forgive you to the end.
- f* 5 Sons of labour, live for JESUS.
Be your work your worship too :
In His name and to His glory
Do whate'er you find to do ;
Till this night of sin and sorrow
Be for ever overpast,
And we see the golden morrow,
Labour ended, home at last.

FOR MEN'S SERVICES

'If the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.'

f THE man who would be truly free
 From all the chains that bind him,
 Must of himself the master be
 And let no passion blind him.
cr True freedom is to bind ourselves,
 To bear each other's burden :
 By this alone her cause is served,
 And this her only guerdon.
f True freedom is for every man,
 Though hard his hands with labour,
 If with his heart he serves his God
 And truly loves his neighbour.

2 Man only can himself abase—
 Himself his birthright barter ;
 'Tis not from poverty or wealth
 That freedom holds her charter.
cr The only chains a man need wear,
 Though high or low his station,
 Are those he forges for himself
 By yielding to temptation.

f 3 Man of himself the lordship holds,
 And owns no power above him
 Save God Himself, Who asks no more Than we should serve and love Him.
 'Tis perfect freedom Him to love,
 'Tis perfect joy to serve Him :
 Such service doth ennoble man
 And for life's battle nerve him.

This hymn may be sung as a Solo, in which case the Refrain may with advantage be sung in four parts.

'Let us now go even unto Bethlehem.'

SHEPHERDS watching o'er your flocks
As the darkness steals around,
Hark, what melody divine
Floods the air with wondrous sound :

f Glory to God in the Highest.

2 Lift your wondering eyes to heaven ;
Choirs of angels gathered there
In the solemn midnight hour
Break the stillness of the air :

3 Stay not on the bleak hill-side,
Hasten, shepherds, to obey ;
To adore yon infant Child
Angels beckon you away :

4 Where the ox and ass are stalled,
There a Babe in swaddling bands,
You to greet and you to bless,
Lifts His tiny infant hands.

p 5 Kneel down, shepherds, bow your heads—
Deep the mystery of love ;
He is God and He is Man :
Here on earth, in heaven above.

f 6 Let us then with gladsome voice
Join the angel choir on high ;
Make heaven's highest arches ring
Through the deep dark midnight sky :

FOR MEETINGS OF CHILDREN

'The star stood over where the young Child was.'

f THE first Nowell the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay :
In fields where they lay akeeping their sheep
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.

cr Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel.

f 2 They looked up and saw a star,
Shining in the east, beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light
And so it continued both day and night.

3 And by the light of that same star,
Three wise men came from country far ;
To seek for a King was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went.

4 This star drew nigh to the north-west,
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest,
And there it did both stop and stay
Right over the place where JESUS lay.

p 5 Then entered in those wise men three,
Fell reverently upon their knee,
And offered there in His presence
Their gold and myrrh and frankincense.

f 6 Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our Heavenly LORD,
That hath made heaven and earth of naught,
And with His blood mankind hath bought.

SALAMIS. (Irregular.)

Greek Air.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a time signature of 4/2. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. A tempo marking '♩ = 92.' is placed between the staves. The music features a melody in the upper staff and a harmonic accompaniment in the lower staff, primarily using chords and moving lines.

The second system continues the musical piece with two staves in the same key and time signature as the first system. The melodic line in the upper staff shows some rhythmic variation, including eighth notes and quarter notes, while the lower staff provides a steady accompaniment.

The third system of music continues the composition. The upper staff features a melodic line with some rests and ties, while the lower staff maintains a consistent accompaniment pattern.

The fourth system shows further development of the melody in the upper staff, with some grace notes and slurs. The lower staff continues to support the melody with a steady accompaniment.

The fifth and final system of music concludes the piece. The upper staff ends with a final cadence, and the lower staff provides a concluding accompaniment.

'He took them up in His arms.'

- f* I THINK when I read that sweet story of old,
 When JESUS was here among men,
 How He called little children as lambs to His fold :
 I should like to have been with them then.
 I wish that His hands had been placed on my head,
 That His arms had been thrown around me ;
 And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,
 'Let the little ones come unto Me.'
- p* 2 Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
 And ask for a share in His love ;
 And if I now earnestly seek Him below,
 I shall see Him and hear Him above :
 In that beautiful place He is gone to prepare
 For all who are washed and forgiven ;
- cr* And many dear children are gathering there,
 For of such is the kingdom of heaven.
- p* 3 But thousands and thousands who wander and fall,
 Never heard of that heavenly home ;
 I should like them to know there is room for them all
 And that JESUS has bid them to come.
- f* I long for the joy of that glorious time,
 The sweetest and brightest and best,
 When the dear little children of every clime
 Shall crowd to His arms and be blest.

A-men.

'If these should hold their peace.'

f HOSANNA, loud hosanna,
The little children sang;
Through pillared court and temple
The joyful anthem rang;
To JESUS, who had blessed them
Close folded to His breast,
The children sang their praises,
The simplest and the best.

2 From Olivet they followed
'Mid an exultant crowd,
The victor palm-branch waving,
And chanting clear and loud;
Bright angels joined the chorus,
Beyond the cloudless sky—
Hosanna in the highest!
Glory to God on high!

κ 3

p 3 Fair leaves of silvery olive
They strewed upon the ground,
While Salem's circling mountains
Echoed the joyful sound;
The Lord of men and angels
Rode on in lowly state,
Nor scorned that little children Should on His bidding wait.

f 4 Hosanna in the highest!
That ancient song we sing;
For CHRIST is our Redeemer,
The Lord of heaven our King.
O may we ever praise Him
With heart and life and voice,
And in His blissful presence
Eternally rejoice.

p THERE is a green hill far away
Without a city wall,
Where the dear LORD was crucified
Who died to save us all.

2 We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear;
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

cr 3 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.

4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin;
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

5 O dearly, dearly has He loved,
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

FOR MEETINGS OF CHILDREN

[From 'Carols for use in Church', edited by the Rev. R. R. CHOPE, M.A., by permission of WILLIAM CLOWES & SONS, Ltd.]

'The first day of the week came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary.'

p THERE stood three Marys by the tomb
 On Easter morning early,
 When day had scarcely chased the gloom
 And dew was white and pearly :
 Alleluia, Alleluia !
 With loving but with erring mind,
 They came the Prince of Life to find :
 Alleluia, Alleluia !

cr 2 But earlier still the angel sped,
 His news of comfort giving ;
f And 'Why', he said, 'among the dead
 Thus seek ye for the Living ?'
 Alleluia, Alleluia !
 'Go, tell them all, and make them blest ;
 Tell Peter first, and then the rest.'
 Alleluia, Alleluia !

p 3 But one, and one alone, remained,
 With love that could not vary ;
cr And thus a joy past joy she gained,
 That sometime sinner, Mary :
 Alleluia, Alleluia !
 The first the dear, dear form to see
 Of Him that hung upon the tree :
 Alleluia, Alleluia !

FOR MEETINGS OF CHILDREN

For CHRIST and the Church, These twain no power shall sever,

One on earth, one in heaven, One on earth, and one in heaven, For ever and for ever. A - men.

* The church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.*

f OUR lives to CHRIST we dedicate,
 Who reigns our glorious King;
 May He receive and consecrate
 The tribute that we bring.
 To Him and to the Church we give
 Our service and our all,
 For in her voice we still rejoice
 To hear His royal call.
For Christ and the Church,
Be this my true endeavour!
For Christ and the Church,
These twain no power shall sever,
One on earth, one in heaven,
For ever and for ever.

p 2 Our fathers fought her battles oft
 And died to set her free;

And now 'tis ours to bear aloft
 Her flag of liberty.
cr They loved our SAVIOUR best of all,
 His Church they did revere:
 They loved the ground where she was found,
 Her dust to them was dear.

p 3 The stains that mar her beauty now Shall shortly disappear;
cr Soon, in remembrance of His vow,
 The Bridegroom will be here.
 And then shall all her wounds be healed,
 Her tears shall all be dried,
f And she shall stand at His right hand
 A faultless, glorious Bride.

EVERY MORNING. (7.5.7.5.7.7.)

Rev. J. B. DYKES, Mus.D.

'Thine eyes shall see the King in His beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off.'

f EVERY morning the red sun
p Rises warm and bright,
 But the evening cometh on,
 And the dark, cold night:
cr There's a bright land far away
 Where 'tis never-ending day.

2 Every spring the sweet young flowers
 Open bright and gay, p Till the chilly autumn hours
 Wither them away:
cr There's a land we have not seen
 Where the trees are always green.

3 Little birds sing songs of praise
 All the summer long,
p But in colder, shorter days

They forget their song:
cr There's a place where angels sing
 Ceaseless praises to their King.

4 CHRIST our LORD is ever near Those who follow Him;
p But we cannot see Him here,
 For our eyes are dim:
cr There is a most happy place
 Where men always see His face.

5 Who shall go to that bright land?
 All who do the right:
 Holy children there shall stand
 In their robes of white;
f For that heaven, so bright and blest,
 Is our everlasting rest.

 Nought that defileth,
 Nought that defileth
 Can ever enter in.

p 2 SAVIOUR, I come to Thee ;
 O LAMB of GOD, I pray,
 Cleanse me and save me,

cr 3 LORD, make me from this hour

 Safe in that happy land.

SALEM. (13.13.16.11.)

German Lied.

'And they brought young children to Him.'

WHEN mothers of Salem their children brought to Jesus,
The stern disciples drove them back and bade them depart;
But Jesus saw them ere they fled, and sweetly smiled and kindly said,
'Suffer little children to come unto me.'

p 2 How kind was our Saviour to bid these children welcome,
But there are many thousands who have never heard His name;
The Bible they have never read, they know not that the Saviour said,
'Suffer little children to come unto me.'

f 3 O soon may the heathen, of every tribe and nation, Fulfil Thy blessed word, and cast their idols all away!
O shine upon them from above, and show Thyself a God of love,
Teach the little children to come unto Thee.

| f SAFE home, safe home in port !
Rent cordage, shattered deck,
Torn sails, provision short,
And only not a wreck :
But O the joy upon the shore
To tell our voyage—perils o'er ! | f 3 No more the foe can harm ;
No more of leaguered camp
And cry of night alarm,
And need of ready lamp ;
And yet how nearly had he failed —
How nearly had that foe prevailed ! |

The athlete nearly fell ;
Bare all he could endure,

DOLOMITE CHANT. (6.6.6.6.)

Austrian Melody.
Harmonized by J. T. COOPER.

Slow.

'Until the Day break.'

p HUSH, blessed are the dead
In Jesus' arms who rest,
And lean their weary head
For ever on His breast.

cr 2 O beatific sight!
No darkling veil between,
They see the Light of Light
Whom here they loved unseen.

3 For them the wild is past
With all its toil and care,
Its withering midnight blast,
Its fiery noonday glare.

p 4 Them the Good Shepherd leads Where storms are never rife,
In tranquil dewy meads
Beside the Fount of Life.

5 Ours only are the tears
Who weep, around their tomb,
The light of bygone years
And shadowing years to come ;

6 Their voice, their touch, their smile,
Those love-springs flowing o'er :
Earth for its little while
Shall never know them more.

7 O tender hearts and true,
Our long last vigil kept,
We weep and mourn for you,
Nor blame us—Jesus wept ;

cr 8 But soon, at break of day,
His own Almighty voice,
Stronger than death, shall say,
f Awake, arise, rejoice.

'One fold and one Shepherd.'

- p THY living saints on earth, Thy saints who sleep,
Their holy day of love together keep:
Around the heavenly altar still they meet
In fond remembrance and communion sweet.
- 2 One Church, before the throne of God they bend,
And all their fervent hopes and longings blend,
Bowing beneath one banner's sacred fold
To plead Thy gracious promises of old.
- cr 3 Those who have knelt together side by side,
Where one eternal fount their wants supplied,
Whose hearts are sealed with one eternal Name,
In these blest bonds eternal union claim:
- 4 One weary heart, one never-silent cry—

When Thou from heaven to earth again shalt come,

MARTIN LUTHER.

Harmonized by J. S. BACH.

Slow and solemn. This tune may be sung in unison.

MISCELLANEOUS

The image shows a musical score for an alternative tune. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The music is written in a style typical of 19th-century hymnals, with various note values, rests, and bar lines. The key signature appears to be one sharp (F#), and the time signature is not explicitly shown but likely common time (C). The first system has a repeat sign at the end. The second system also has a repeat sign. The third system ends with a final cadence.

END OF YEAR.

'They that are Christ's at His coming.'

- f* GREAT God, what do I see and hear?
The end of things created!
The Judge of mankind doth appear,
On clouds of glory seated.
- cr* The trumpet sounds, the graves restore
The dead which they contained before:
Prepare, my soul, to meet Him.
- 2 The dead in CHRIST shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies, cr With joy their LORD surrounding.
No gloomy fears their souls dismay:
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.
- p* 3 Great Judge, to Thee our prayers we pour,
In deep abasement bending:
O shield us in that last dread hour,
Thy wondrous love extending;
May we, in this our trial day
With faithful hearts Thy word obey, cr And thus prepare to meet Thee.

p O HOLY FATHER, 'mid the calm And stillness of this evening hour,
We too would lift our solemn psalm
To praise Thy goodness and Thy power;

Thy tender mercies still extend;
Nor vainly shall the contrite call
On Thee, our FATHER and our Friend.

cr 3 Kept by Thy goodness through the Thanksgiving to Thy name we pour:

Night o'er us with its stars, we pray
Thy love to guard us evermore.

f 4 To FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore.

Type of His eternal rest :

p 2 Resting in the tomb to-day,

Wrapt in sleep, from head to feet
Shrouded in the winding-sheet,

Hidden by the sealed stone.

3 Lord, with Thee till life shall end
We would solemn vigil spend :
Close the door from sight and sound
Of the busy world around,
And in patient watch remain
Till Thou shalt appear again.

4 Still with Thee their Sabbath keep
They who 'neath the altar sleep :
Resting from their labours past,
Waiting for the trumpet's blast ;

FOR SACRED SEASONS

' Behold I bring you good tidings of great joy.'

- f* CHRISTIANS, awake, salute the happy morn
Whereon the SAVIOUR of the world was born.
Rise to adore the mystery of love
Which hosts of angels chanted from above :
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of GOD Incarnate and the Virgin's SON.
- *2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard th' angelic herald's voice, ' Behold,
I bring good tidings of a SAVIOUR's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth :
cr This day hath GOD fulfilled His promised word,
This day is born a SAVIOUR, CHRIST the LORD.'
- *3 He spake, and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire.
The praises of redeeming love they sang
And heaven's whole orb with Allelujas rang :
GOD's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good will.
- *4 To Bethlehem straight th' enlightened shepherds ran
To see the wonder GOD had wrought for man,
And found, with Joseph and the Blessed Maid,
Her SON, the SAVIOUR, in a manger laid.
Then to their flocks, still praising GOD, return,
And their glad hearts with holy rapture burn.
- p* 5 O may we keep and ponder in our mind
GOD's wondrous love in saving lost mankind.
Trace we the Babe who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross ;
cr Tread in His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.
- f* 6 Then may we hope, th' angelic hosts among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song.
He that was born upon this joyful day
Around us all His glory shall display.
cr Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to heaven's Almighty King.

CORDE NATUS. (S.7.S.7.S.7. and refrain.)

Melody as in Piae Cantiones, 1582.

REFRAIN.

'God was manifest in the flesh.'

f OF the FATHER's love begotten
 Ere the worlds began to be,
 He is Alpha and Omega,
 He the source, the ending He,
 Of the things that are, that have been,
 And that future years shall see,
Evermore and evermore.

p O that birth for ever blessed!
 When the Virgin, full of grace,
 By the HOLY GHOST conceiving,
 Bore the SAVIOUR of our race,
 And the Babe, the world's Redeemer,
 First revealed His sacred face.

f O ye heights of heaven, adore Him;
 Angel-hosts, His praises sing;
 Powers, dominions, bow before Him
 And extol our God and King:
 Let no tongue on earth be silent,
 Every voice in concert ring.

cr CHRIST, to Thee, with God the FATHER,
 And, O HOLY GHOST, to Thee
 Hymn and chant, and high thanksgiving,

f And unwearied praises be:

I. THE QUESTION.

p IN His own raiment clad,
With His blood dyed,
Women walk sorrowing
By His side.

Heavy that cross to Him,
Weary the weight;
One who will help Him wait
At the gate.

2 See ! they are travelling
 On the same read—
 Simon is sharing with Him the load.
 O whither wandering
 Bear they that tree ;
 He who first carries it,
 Who is He ?

II. THE ANSWER.

pp 3 Follow to Calvary,
 Tread where He trod,
 He who for ever was
 SON OF GOD.
 You who would love Him, stand,
 Gaze at His face,
 Tarry awhile on your Earthly race.

4 As the swift moments fly
 Through the blest week,
 Hear the great story the Cross will speak.
 Is there no beauty to
 You who pass by,
 In that lone figure which Marks that sky ?

III. THE STORY OF THE CROSS.

pp 5 On the cross lifted up
 Thy face I scan,
 Bearing that cross for me,
 Son of man.
 Thorns form Thy diadem,
 Rough wood Thy throne :
 For us Thy blood is shed,
 Us alone.

6 Loud scoffs the dying thief
 Who mocks at Thee—
 Can it, my SAVIOUR, be
 All for me ?
 No pillow under Thee
 To rest Thy head,
 Only the splintered cross
 Is Thy bed.

7 Shadows of midnight fall,
 Though it is day ;
 Thy friends and kinsfolk stand
 Far away.
 Loud is Thy bitter cry ;
 Sunk on Thy breast
 Hangeth Thy bleeding head,
 Without rest.

8 Gazing afar from Thee,
 Silent and lone,
 Stand those few weepers Thou
 Callest Thine own.
 Nails pierce Thy hands and feet,
 Thy side the spear ;
 No voice is nigh to say
 Help is near.

p 9 I see Thy title, LORD, Inscribed above—
 JESUS of Nazareth,
 King of Love.
 What, O my SAVIOUR,
 Here didst Thou see,
 Which made Thee suffer and Die for me ?

IV. THE APPEAL FROM THE CROSS.

cr 10 Child of My grief and pain,
 Watched by My love,
 I came to call thee to Realms above.
 I saw thee wandering
 Far off from Me ;
 In love I seek for thee,
 Do not flee.

11 For thee My blood was shed,
 For thee alone ;
 I came to purchase thee
 For Mine own.
 Weep not for My grief,
 Child of My love ;
 Strive to be with Me in Heaven above.

V. OUR CRY TO JESUS.

f 12 O I will follow Thee,
 Star of my soul,
 Through the deep shades of life
 To the goal.
 Yes, let Thy cross be borne
 Each day by me,
 Though it press heavily,
 If with Thee.

13 LORD, if Thou only wilt
 Make me Thine own,
 Fix my heart's longing on Thee alone.
 Grant through each day of life
 To stand by Thee :
cr With Thee, when morning breaks,
 Ever to be.

ALTERNATIVE TUNE, ANTHEM 80 IN SCOTTISH ANTHEM BOOK.

NOTE.—When the alternative setting is used, the hymn is sung in the following form :—

‘ To Jesus, the Mediator.’

JESUS, WORD of GOD incarnate,
 Of the Virgin Mother born,
 On the cross Thy sacred body
 For us men with nails was torn :
 Cleanse us in the sacred fountain
 Opened in Thy piercèd side :
 Feed us with Thy body broken—
 Broken in death’s agony.
 O JESUS, hear us ! O JESUS, save us !
 JESUS, SAVIOUR, hear our supplication.
 O grant us, LORD, Thy mercy. Amen.

BALLERMA, (C.M.)

Old Melody (Spanish ?).
Adapted by ROBERT SIMPSON.

'Now to appear in the presence of God for us.'

- f* ONCE, only once, and once for all,
His precious life He gave :
Before the cross our spirits fall,
And own it strong to save.
- 2 'One offering, single and complete,'
With lips and heart we say ;
But what He never can repeat
He shews forth day by day.
- 3 For, as the priest of Aaron's line
Within the holiest stood,
And sprinkled all the mercy-shrine
With sacrificial blood—
- 4 Our Priest and Victim, adding nought
To His atonement's power,
Presents Himself for those He bought p In that dark noontide hour.
- f* 5 His Manhood pleads where now it lives
On heaven's eternal throne,
And where in mystic rite He gives
His presence to His own.
- 6 We know, when we approach Thy board,
That Thou Thyself art here—
And thus we shew Thy death, O LORD,
Till Thou again appear.

'Everything shall live whither the river cometh.'

p THERE is an ancient River
 Whose streams descend in light
 From never-failing fountains Beyond all earthly sight;
cr It ran through all the ages
 And whereso'er it flowed Uprose the Holy City,
 The Lord's elect abode.

f 2 The River still is flowing,
 But now with fuller stream;
 And still the light is falling,
 But now with brighter beam;
 Of old the song of Moses Soared as it swept along, cr But now the name of JESUS
 Is made its sweeter song.

FOR SACRED SEASONS

3 Its radiance lights us onwards,
Its chanting waters cheer :
Blest is the eye beholding,
Blest is the hearing ear ;
For as the earth clouds darken

4 God's River ! the one SPIRIT,
Grace of the mystic Seven,
Drink, holy Church, these waters,
Thine earnest here of heaven :
So joy and peace and pleasure
Shall feed thy life within ;
So power without shall guard thee
Against the world of sin.

ff 5 O beautiful the River !

In bliss of expectation

We pass upon Thy breast,

'We would see Jesus.'

- f* WE would see JESUS—(p) for the shadows lengthen

We would not mourn them, we too come to Thee.
- f* 4 We would see JESUS—(p) sense is all too blinding
And heaven appears too dim, too far away;
We would see Thee, Thyself our hearts reminding p What Thou hast suffered our great debt to pay.
- f* 5 We would see JESUS, for us interceding;
Strength, joy and willingness come with the sight.
cr We would see JESUS, dying, risen, pleading:
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

L'OMNIPOTENT. (11.10.11,10.10.10.)

Melody composed or adapted by

L. BOURGEOIS for the Genevan Psalter, 1543.Moderately slow. This tune may be sung in unison.
'I know their sorrows.'

- p* THOU knowest, LORD, the weariness and sorrow
Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest ;
Cares of to-day, and burdens for to-morrow,
Blessings implored, and sins to be confessed—
I come before Thee at Thy gracious word
And lay them at Thy feet : Thou knowest, LORD.
- 2 Thou knowest all the past : how long and blindly
On the dark mountains the lost wanderer strayed ;
How the Good Shepherd followed and how kindly
- p* He bore it home, upon His shoulders laid, cr And healed the bleeding wounds and soothed the pain,
And brought back life and hope and strength again.
- p* 3 Thou knowest all the present : each temptation,
Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear—
All to myself assigned of tribulation,
Or to beloved ones than self more dear—
- dim* All pensive memories, as I journey on,
Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

GENERAL HYMNS

- cr 4 Thou knowest all the future : gleams of gladness
 By stormy clouds too quickly overcast, dim Hours of sweet fellowship, and parting sadness, p And the dark river to be crossed at last—cr O what could confidence and hope afford
 To tread that path, but this, 'Thou knowest, LORD'?
- cr 5 Thou knowest, not alone as GOD, all knowing :
 As man our mortal weakness Thou hast proved.
 On earth, with purest sympathies o'erflowing,
p O SAVIOUR, Thou hast wept, and Thou hast loved ;
 cr And love and sorrow still to Thee may come
 And find a hiding-place, a rest, a home.
- p* 6 Therefore I come, Thy gentle call obeying,
 And lay my sins and sorrows at Thy feet,
f On everlasting strength my weakness staying,
 Thy blood our drink indeed, Thy flesh our meat ;
 cr Then rising and refreshed I leave Thy throne
 And follow on to know as I am known.

GENERAL HYMNS

'Certainly I will be with thee.'

f O TRUST thyself to JESUS
p When conscious of thy sin—
 Its heavy weight upon thee,
 Its mighty power within :
dim Then is the hour for pleading
 His finished work for thee ;
cr Then is the time for singing,
 His blood was shed for me.

f 2 O trust thyself to JESUS
p When tempted to transgress
 By word, or look of anger,
 Or thought of bitterness :
cr Then is the hour for claiming
 Thy LORD to fight for thee ;
 Then is the time for singing,
 He doth deliver me.

p 3 O trust thyself to JESUS
 When daily cares perplex,
 And trifles seem so mighty
 Thy inner soul to vex :
cr Then is the hour for grasping
 His hand who walked the sea ;
f Then is the time for singing, dim He makes it calm for me.

p 4 O trust thyself to JESUS
 When thou art tried with pain,
 No power for prayer, the only thought
 How to endure the strain :
dim Then is the hour for resting
 In His sweet love of thee ;
cr Then is the time for singing,
 He thinks, He prays for me.

pp 5 O trust thyself to JESUS
 When loved ones pass away,
 And life is sad and lonely
 And very dark the way :
p Then is the hour for yielding Entirely to His will ;
cr Then is the time for singing,
 I have my SAVIOUR still.

ALTERNATIVE TUNE, DONNE SECOURS, No. 27.

'A little while.'

- f* O FOR the peace that floweth as a river,
 Making life's desert places bloom and smile.
 O for the faith to grasp heaven's bright 'for ever'
 Amid the shadows of earth's 'little while'.
- p* 2 A little while for patient vigil keeping,
cr To face the storm and wrestle with the strong ;
p A little while to sow the seed with weeping :
cr Then bind the sheaves and sing the harvest song.
- p* 3 A little while to wear the weeds of sadness,
 To pace with weary step through miry ways :
cr Then to pour forth the fragrant oil of gladness,
f To clasp the girdle round the robe of praise.
- p* 4 A little while the earthen pitcher taking
 To wayside brooks, from far-off mountains fed :
cr Then the parched lip its thirst for ever slaking
 Beside the fulness of the Fountain-head.
- p* 5 A little while to keep the oil from failing,
 A little while faith's flickering lamp to trim,
cr And then, the Bridegroom's coming footsteps hailing, f We'll haste to meet Him with the bridal hymn.

REFRAIN. A little faster.

f Then trust in God through all thy days; Fear not! for He doth hold thy hand.

a tempo primo.

Though dark thy way, still sing and praise; Some time, some time we'll un-der-stand.

GENERAL HYMNS

'Then shall we know.'

NOT now, but in the coming years—
It may be in the better land—
We'll read the meaning of our tears,
And there, some time, we'll understand.

f Then trust in God through all thy days ;
Fear not ! for He doth hold thy hand.
Though dark thy way, still sing and praise ;
Some time, some time we'll understand.

2 We'll catch the broken threads again
And finish what we here began ;
Heaven will the mysteries explain,
And then, ah then, we'll understand.

p 3 We'll know why clouds instead of sun
Were over many a cherished plan,
Why song had ceased when scarce begun :
'Tis there, some time, we'll understand.

4 Why what we long for most of all
Eludes so oft our eager hand,
Why hopes are crushed, and castles fall :
'Tis there, some time, we'll understand.

cr 5 God knows the way, He holds the key,
He guides us with unerring hand ;
Some time with tearless eyes we'll see :
Yes, there, ah there, we'll understand.

FIRST TUNE

C. H. PURDAY.

'Remember not the sins of my youth.'

- p* COULD I recall the years that now are flown
 For evermore,
 Revive my early visions, long o'erthrown,
 And hope restore :
- cr* How blest it were to mould my life anew,
 And all my broken vows of youth renew !
- 2 O were I once again but free to choose
 As in past days,
 How oft the sun-lit path I would refuse
 For sterner ways !
 Content to turn aside from every road
 Save that which kept me in the smile of God.

314

GREISENGESANG. (10.4.10.4.10.10.)

SECOND TUNE

J. MONTGOMERIE BELL.

p 3 But vain the dream : the strife is o'er with me :
Dark days remain.

I could not trust my heart, if I were free
To choose again.

The dazzling morning might again deceive,
Life be mis-spent, and age be left to grieve.

4 I would not, if I could, recall the years
That now are fled ;

Their cares and pleasures, labours, hopes and fears,
For me are dead.

p I ask but mercy for the weary past,
And grace to guide me gently home at last.

315

HARTREE. (7.9.7.6.6.7.6.7.)

A. C. MONTGOMERIE BELL.

'Seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not.'

p CHRIST'S path was sad and lowly,
 But yet thou, in thy pride,
 Wouldst climb the highest summit
 And in the height abide—
 Wouldst thou to heaven arise?
 The LORD thy way will show thee;
 For who would climb these skies
 Must first with Him be lowly.

GENERAL HYMNS

- 2 Lowly, my soul, be lowly :
 Follow the paths of old.
 The feather rises lightly
 But never so the gold.
 The stream descending fast
 Has gathered gently, slowly—
 A river rolls at last :
 Therefore, my soul, be lowly.
- 3 Lowly, my eyes, be lowly :
 God from His throne above
 Looks down upon the humble
 In gentleness and love.
cr Still, as I rise, I shall Have greater depths below me,
 And haughty looks must fall :
 Therefore, my eyes, be lowly.
- p* 4 Lowly, my hands, be lowly :
 CHRIST's poor around us dwell ;
 Stoop down and kindly cherish
 The flock He loves so well,
 Not toiling to secure
 In this world fame and glory.
 Thy SAVIOUR blest the poor :
 Therefore, my hands, be lowly.
- p* 5 Lowly, my heart, be lowly :
cr So God shall dwell with thee.
 It is the meek and patient
 Who shall exalted be.
p Deep in the valley rest
 The SPIRIT's gifts most holy,
 And they who seek are blest :
 Therefore, my heart, be lowly.
- 6 Lowly, I would be lowly—
 This frame, to earth allied,
 Must first to dust be humbled
 Ere it be glorified.
 My God, prepare me here
 For all that lies before me ;
cr I would in heaven appear,
dim And therefore would be lowly.

As if no dreadful deed were done,
As if Thy blood had never flowed
To hinder sin or to atone.
- 3 I walk the earth with lightsome step,
Smile at the sunshine, breathe the air,
Do my own will, nor ever heed
Gethsemane and Thy long prayer.
- cr* 4 Shall it be always thus, O LORD?
Wilt Thou not work this hour in me
The grace Thy passion merited,
Hatred of self and love of Thee?
- p* 5 O by the pains of Thy pure love,
Grant me the gift of holy fear;
And by Thy woes and bloody sweat, cr O wash my guilty conscience clear.
- p* 6 Ever when tempted make me see,
Beneath the olives' moon-pierced shade,
dim My God, alone, outstretched and bruised
And bleeding, on the earth He made.
- p* 7 And make me feel it was my sin,
As though no other sins there were,
That was to Him who bears the world
pp A load that He could scarcely bear.

 To bring the long-sought SAVIOUR down;
 Thou art to all already given,
 Thou dost e'en now Thy banquet crown:

- 3 Isaac from the wood is risen ;
Joseph issues from the prison ;
See the Paschal LAMB which saves ;
Israel through the sea is landed,
Pharaoh and his hosts are stranded,
And o'erwhelmèd in the waves.
- 4 See the cloudy pillar leading ;
Rock refreshing ; manna feeding ;
Joshua fights, and Moses prays ;
See the lifted wave-sheaf, cheering
Pledge of harvest-fruits appearing,
Joyful dawn of happy days.
- 5 Samson see at night uptearing
Gaza's brazen gates, and bearing
To the top of Hebron's hill ;
Jonah comes from stormy surges,
From his three-days' grave emerges,
Bids beware of coming ill.
- 6 So thy Resurrection's glory
Sheds a light on ancient story ;
And it casts a forward ray,
p Beacon light of solemn warning,
cr To the dawn of that great morning
Ushering in the Judgment Day.

GOD the SPIRIT, Three in One,
Hear us from Thy heavenly throne:

SCORN and sorrow, toil and care,

 to clear the inward sight,

THE NICENE CREED

This Creed is not to be sung in strict time, but (as in good chanting) in such a manner as will best convey the meaning of the words, without either hurry or drawl. Some little pause should be made on the word 'LORD' in page 463. The amount of Organ to be employed must of course be left to the judgment of the Organist; but it is recommended that it be occasionally varied according to the words.
